

Terence Robert Yardley

17.5.1944 – 17.5.2012

Terence Robert Yardley died at the age of 68 at Gosford Hospital. He had suffered for some time with cancer.

Terry was born on the 17th May 1944 in Cradley Heath, England, where he lived for 60 years. He and his wife moved to Tumbi Umbi on the Central Coast of NSW in 2004.

Terry was known as a friendly man who would always offer a smile and help to others. He was well known in the local streets, seen every day walking his beloved Barney.

Terry was also a very keen fisherman and shooter. Some of his happiest times in Australia were spent on Tuggerah Lake, fishing for flatties.

He is survived by his wife Elsie and son Brett.

A wonderful husband, father and friend who will be loved and missed forever.
